Waldsägmühle – Kälberbronn

The officially recognized health resort was founded in the 18th century by lumberjacks. What makes it attractive today however, is its unique location.

In the heart of the "Weiler Forest", about 4 km west of Pfalzgrafenweiler, is Kälberbronn located. The nature protection area "Grosse Tannen", an area of about 13 ha, has been well known for its 200 fir trees, of which some reached 55 m in height. Almost all of them fell on 26. December 1999, when the storm "Lothar" destroyed major areas of the Black Forest. The trees had an age of up to 250 years. Right next the parking place "Große Tannen" start some beautiful flat hiking trails through forests and meadows in all directions.

- 1961 Hans Ziegler marries the skilled woman tailoress Marta Frey from Röt. Marta studied the hotel branch from ground up in the hotels Schwanen in Kälberbronn, Dreikönig in Freudenstadt and Obere Linde in Oberkirch.
- 1961/62 to secure the sawing mill business, a new water line is built. At the same time the Ziegler family starts planning a new sawing mill at the location of today's hotel. Soon however, the Zieglers recognize that there is little future in the timber business and change their plans to build a little hotel instead of a sawing mill.
- 1963 the new plan becomes reality and the digging of the foundation starts.
- 1964 the hotel with 21 beds and 65 seats is completed and is opened.
- 1965 due to the fact that the hotel and the restaurant becomes more and more popular and is also economically successful, the sawing mill business is discontinued.
- 1969 to enable to hold larger festivities and to expand the total capacity of the hotel the Zinsbachstube is attached.
- 1973/74 because of the strong demand, the hotel is expanded by an extension that holds another 25 beds, a reception, an indoor pool and a larger kitchen. (All rooms had shower or bath and WC at that time already).
- 1979/80 in a further expansion today's Ofenstube, the house guest room and the Kaminzimmer are added and the hotel capacity expanded by another 15 beds.
- 1982 the Waldsägmühle receives with its Chef Wolfgang Ankele the first "Star" in the Michelin travel guide.
- 1983 The "Vif - Gourmet Journal" classifies the Waldsägmühle amongst the 192 best Gourmet addresses in Germany.
- From 1983 every year the Waldsägmühle is decorated with the "Bib Gourmet" in the Michelin travel guide.
- 1999 on 26. of december the storm "Lothar" devastates a major portion of the Weiler Forest and causes dramatic damages around the Waldsägmühle.
- 2000 on 1. January Martin Ziegler, the youngest of the 5 children, takes over the Waldsägmühle from his parents.
- 2000 the Waldsägmühle is decorated with "4 Stars" by the DEHOGA (Deutscher Hotel- und Gaststättenverband)
- 2001 Martin Ziegler marries Sabine Darnhofer from Graz, a qualified graduate in the hotel and catering trade.
Marc, their first son is born.
- 2003 Tim, their second son is born.
